

“Caravan of Mystery”

Exploring the treasure troves of ancient mystics

Come and bring your open heart as an offering – let's taste the Divine Wine of Love, pouring through our being, unveiling the mysteries hidden within. We will explore the teachings of universal mysticism and use Dances of Universal Peace, meditation practices, walks, chants and zikr to light our path as we explore the infinite landscapes of our heart.

Dakini

Dakini is a seeker on the path of the heart, a dance leader and a mentor of Dances of Universal Peace, a Sheikha offering spiritual guidance in the Sufi Ruhaniat International and a student of Tibetan Buddhism. Dakini initiated a Dance Camp in Estonia (2001), a Sufi camp in Scotland (2012) and co-founded a Buddhist retreat centre in Findhorn (2005). She now lives in a canal boat in England and in a house truck in Aotearoa, homeschooling her teenage daughter. She serves on the DUP International Board of Directors and travels internationally guiding those who yearn for a deeper intimacy with the divine."
