

The Scent of Light

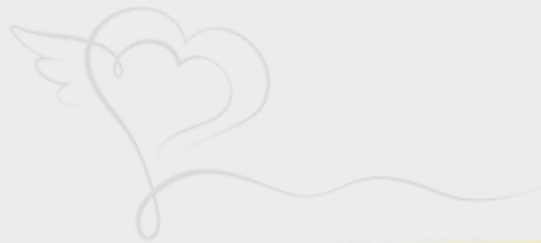

A Journey into the Heart of Zikr

A weekend of Dances of Universal Peace and Sufi Practices

with Dakini

23 - 25 April 2021

The Sharda Centre, Tuakau

Zikr means to remember, to cherish, to celebrate the Divine. It refers to a spiritual state of heart and mind, as well as to a devotional ritual, in which we glorify our intimate connection with the Divine. We invoke the immediate experience of divine qualities and activate the energies of compassion and mercy. By drawing blessings from the angelic realm we expand our aliveness and find rest and deep nourishment for our hearts. In this weekend we explore the practice of Zikr in its various formats and manifestations in the lineage of Sufi Ruhaniat International. We dance, sit, pray, and move through the waves of divine intoxication and sobriety, consciously aligning our hearts with the Infinite Reality.

Starts with a dinner on Friday, 23 April at 6pm; finishes on Sunday, 25 April after lunch

Cost: $210 / $190 if paid before 4 April (shared room + tuition); less $30 campervans/camping. Booking Essential with a deposit of $70. Please bring food to share.

Suitable to all open and curious hearts

Dakini is a seeker on the path of the heart, a Sheikha offering spiritual guidance in Sufi Ruhaniat International, a dance leader and a mentor of Dances of Universal Peace, and a student of Tibetan Buddhism. She travels internationally guiding those who yearn for a deeper intimacy with the divine.
